General Information

Email Notification

- The CFL/ACFL shall be notified when a member over which they hold PRIMS responsibility receives an overall result of Fail on the BCA or PRT for the current PFA cycle.
- The CFL/ACFL shall be notified when a member over which they hold PRIMS responsibility receives a grade of Probationary for any portion of the PRT for the current PFA cycle resulting in FEP enrollment and if the member is transferred out of the command.
- The CFL/ACFL should not receive a second notification (No Open Enrollment, BCA Failed, PRT Probationary).

PARFQ Editing

■ The CFL shall be able to edit a member's completed PARFQ a maximum of one time per each PFA cycle.

The CFL shall be able to edit a Service Member's completed PARFQ up to six months after the original PFA start date (PARFQ was completed and submitted via MNP or manually submitted by Coordinator/ CFL).

General Information

- A member with a medical waiver or UA in the BCA Participation block can still participate in the PRT.
- If a member fails the PFA (either BCA or PRT), a message will appear stating that the member will automatically be enrolled in the Fitness Enhancement Program (FEP).
- Pregnancy is not a medical waiver. There is a pregnant nonparticipation status option in PRIMS 2. Use that from the time the Sailor is confirmed pregnant until twelve months after the end of convalescent leave.
- For members who are at high altitude, select High Altitude from the drop down menu. PRIMS 2 will automatically calculate the PRT based on the High Altitude tables.
- For members who test using the USMC PFT, select USMC from the Standard box and then click save. PRIMS 2 will automatically populate the PRT with USMC Pass. Scores cannot be input.
